DOCUMENTATION and NURSING | Evidence search | NICE

Good documentation is an important part of improving both patient care and nursing practice. Proper documentation promotes safe patient care, good communication among staff members, and the advancement of the nursing profession.

Importance of Documentation in Nursing: The Do's and Don

Proper documentation reflects the quality of care that you give to your clients and is evidence that you acted as required or ordered. To avoid litigation, health care providers must comply with established standards of care.
